

VISION SURVEY

Conducting this survey is critical in (a) hearing from God through His people and (b) creating ownership for the future direction and change. While compiling this survey will take some effort, the open-ended nature allows for individuals to respond from their heart. Asking only one question keeps the survey simple and easy to complete, increasing participation.

Thank you for answering this short 1 question survey. Your answers will help us discover God's will for this place, so that we follow Him well into the future.
