

MY MISSION

Your mission is fueled by your values and answers the “What am I called to do?” question, including the “Who?” Jesus has given you a passion for.

It should be short enough to fit on a t-shirt. Its shortness requires that every word counts. No fillers.

You will do more extensive work on the “Who?” in the upcoming StartNew Canvas section. Your work here will help you begin the process.

1. If I could snap my fingers and know I couldn't fail, what would I do?

2. In heaven I'd love to look back and know I'd done something about:

3. If I asked a group of your close friends what you're really interested in and passionate about, what would they say?

4. The causes I'm most passionate about are:

5. The people I most enjoy helping are:
